

1)which project management methodologies have you utilized in your projects?

Hybrid/agile/waterfall

2)in which types of projects do you prefer to use agile methodologies such as scrum or kanban?

High unpredictability/high frequency of changes/iterative development

3)in which types of projects do you prefer to use waterfall methodology?

Clearly defined criteria/ sequential flow

4)have you considered using hybrid methodologies that combine aspects of agile and waterfall process in your projects? Yes/no

5)what are the critical criteria you consider when selecting a project management methodology?

Project complexity/ team size/ stakeholders/scope/ flexibility/ adaptability/ project duration

6)what challenges have you face when implementing project management methodologies?

Resistance to change/lack of training/difficulty for adaptation

Have you observed any benefits from using project management methodologies?

Improved project control/enhanced team collaboration/ increased project visibility/ better alignment with customers

How important is training and education in successfully implementing project management methodologies? important/not important